

ANKER

Ahoy sailors, let us introduce you to Anker! (anchor in Dutch), a triangular picnic table that seats six of you Popeyes comfortably. Looking at the corner face of the table, you clearly see where we got the name.

In combination with our Inumbrina parasol it's an awesome eye-catching set up! Get creative with the different colours of wood and steel to make your favourite combination that suits your way of life.

FRESH BREAD DELIVERY

The early shift is over! Our baker, Toon, takes a seat together with his workers at the Anker table.

DE BLANKAART'S FAIRY CASTLE

Contrary to what the name suggests, you'll find Anker not only near the sea.

At Blankaart castle, three Anker tables welcome the visitor. The extremely durable galvanised finish is ideal here, given the public nature of the domain.
